Players Of Week

Second (left) and Phillip Goode (right) are Players of the Week of Appomattox County High and each one is a winner of dinner at Maude's. Raiders, after their win Friday evening, at Naruna Friday and a 14-13 loss, will be the feeb for their Homecoming bout against Amherst Friday night at 8 in the ACHS stadium.

Demonstrations To Highlight Arts & Crafts Fair

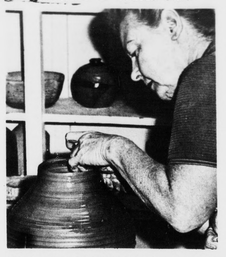
Actual demonstrations of pottery making, sculpturing, woodworking, weaving and other handcrafts are expected to attract visitors from far and wide to the second annual Virginia Arts and Handcrafts Fair. The three-day festival will open Thursday, November 4, with a special preview showing and sale for Fine Art Center members. The Friday and Saturday showings will be open to the public with a modest admission charge. Visitors are encouraged to meet the artists and to discuss any aspects of their work that interest them.

One of the highlights of the Fair will be provided by Dick Frisbee, art instructor for the Lynchburg Fine Arts Center. Mr. Frisbee will do a head sculpture from a live model, a task which will span the entire course of the Fair.

Mark Sagan of Leesburg will take time out from his duties as Chief Interpretative Planner for the National Park Service to exhibit his works at the Fair. For the past ten years, he has been creating lively, colorful birds and animals out of stained glass. Today, his translucent purple hippos and bright scarlet cardinals may be found all over the world.

Other interesting exhibits to be demonstrated include creations in silver, sculptured metal water fountains, water colors, oils, serigraphy, ceramic and fabric sculpture and carving, woodworking crafts, the art of weaving place mats, bedspreads and other items interesting to the people of Virginia.

Hours for the second annual Virginia Arts and Handcrafts Fair are as follows: Preview showing, Thursday, November 4, from 7 to 9:30 p.m.; public showings, Friday and Saturday, November 5 and 6, from 10 a.m. to 5:30 p.m. and again from 7 to 9:30 p.m., both days.



Ulrica Rudd, native of Denmark and now living in Chevy Chase, Maryland, works at her potter's wheel on large earthware vase in preparation for Virginia Arts and Handcrafts Fair.

Jordan Baptist

On Thanksgiving night, the Ladies Club is sponsoring a special pre-sanding service, Rev. R. Q. Lawing will be the speaker.

On the fourth Sunday (Nov. 28) the choir is sponsoring their annual Harvest Festival program. There will be a three-way sermon preached by Rev. J. W. Paige, Rev. W. R. Jones and Rev. C. L. Elliott. The Mt. Obed senior church will sing. All are invited to attend this program which will start at 7 p.m.

The Johnson Family of Lynchburg will appear in concert here the first Sunday in December, Dec. 5, at 3:30 p.m. For a delightful afternoon, attend this program.

We are very glad that Mr. Emory Austin has returned home after his operation and stay in the hospital and is doing nicely.

Deacon John Jones, our oldest deacon, celebrated his 86th birthday on Tuesday.

Speech-Hearing Fund Drive Poster Contest

The Appomattox County committee for the Central Virginia Speech and Hearing Center has announced a poster contest for 5th, 6th, and 7th graders of Appomattox Intermediate School.

There will be five $1.00 prizes and four honorable mentions awarded. The poster should illustrate the need for good speech and hearing.

Dr. J. A. Mathews is chairman of the committee seeking to raise $5,000 as this county's share of expense to purchase sensitive equipment needed by the Speech and Hearing Center. The Center serves Appomattox county children, youth and adults.

Boys and girls in the three grades are being issued specific information about the contest and poster material.

Other inquiries can be addressed to Mrs. Howard McCool, publicity chairman, 352-7582.

Halloween Winners
